How to Use the Solana Volume Booster Bot
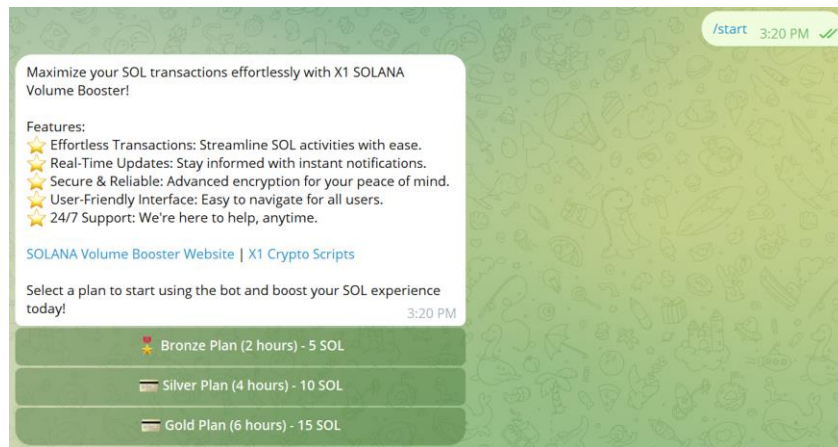

Step-by-Step Guide to Boost Your Trading Volume

1. Open the Bot on Telegram

   o Search for our Solana Volume Booster Bot on Telegram or click the invite link provided on our website.

   o Start the bot by clicking "Start" in the chat.

2. Choose Your Plan

   o Select from our Bronze, Silver, or Gold plans depending on your boosting needs.

   o Each plan offers different durations to suit your trading strategy.

3. Make Payment and Wait for Confirmation

   o Follow the instructions to make the payment for your selected plan.

   o Wait for the bot to confirm your payment.

4. Access the Main Menu

   o Once your payment is confirmed, access the main menu to configure your bot settings.

5. Input Wallet and Token Address

   o Enter your Solana wallet address and the token address you want to boost.

   o Ensure the details are correct to avoid any issues.

6. Generate Wallets

   o Use the bot to generate new wallets for the boosting process by pressing "Generate Wallets" o Input wallet amount when prompted to do so and the bot will start generating them.

7. Deposit Solana

   o Deposit the required amount of Solana into your generated wallets to fund the boosting process.

   o Do this by pressing "Deposit" and entering the amount of Solana you want to deposit to each wallet (for example, if you put 0.5, then 0.5 will be deposited in each of your generated wallets from your main wallet).

   o Also, before depositing, make sure your main wallet holds enough solana, so it can be distributed to the generated wallets.

8. Start Boosting

   o After depositing Solana into generated wallets, initiate the boosting process through the main menu by pressing "Start VolumeMaking".

   o Monitor the progress and performance through real-time updates provided by the bot.

9. Plan Expiry and Withdrawal

   o When your selected plan expires, the bot will automatically sell all tokens.

   o The proceeds from the sale will be withdrawn to your Solana wallet.

   o You will receive a confirmation message once the process is complete.

By following these simple steps, you can easily start boosting your Solana trading volume and enhance your market presence.
